

Gauteng Online Schools programme

Warren Hero
Gauteng Shared Service Centre, South Africa

Abstract

The Gauteng Provincial government has devoted considerable resources to e-government and specifically the establishment of ICT laboratories in Gauteng public schools. The programme: Gauteng Online Schools programme has been through several iterations in the last several years, the paper seeks to discuss the lessons learnt and to discuss the future of this programme in the context of local challenges and opportunities..